

Preston Primary School – Curriculum Ambitions

This document shows some of the experiences your child may have in order to reach our aims. It is not an exhaustive list or tick sheet. This is a supporting document.

Curriculum Aims/Ambitions		Curriculum links	School Value Links	Experiences and skills we could offer
Independence and Resilience	For all children to be able to access resources and talk about and present their learning confidently.	- Personal, Social and Emotional Development - Communication and language	courage	- Modelling metacognition vocabulary and facilitating opportunities in continuous provision - Encourage carpet time and show and tell conversations - Take part in sharing assemblies
Kindness and compassion	For all children to develop an understanding of their roles as custodians of the planet.	- Understanding the world - Personal, Social and Emotional Development	Responsibility and compassion	- Regular nature school opportunities onsite - Have discussions around things that are good or bad for the environment - Show how we recycle at school - To show how we look after school resources and our classroom environment. - Take part in the school pollinators art project
To develop a lifelong love of reading	For the children to gain the wide-ranging benefits that can have a lifelong positive impact on their lives.	- Literacy - Personal, Social and Emotional Development	creativity	- School library - Local library - To offer a wide range of books with examples of different cultures, families and religions. - Theatre company visits - a trip to the theatre
To develop writing	For the children to have purpose and confidence in their writing	- literacy - Understanding the World	creativity	- Visit places in the local area to provide experiences for role play ie shop, library. - Provide fun daily fine motor skills activities - provide mark making and writing opportunities which interest and inspire