

English Narrative: writing to entertain (character descriptions) Non-Fiction: writing to persuade Poetry: writing to entertain (free-verse)	Science Animals: Identify nutrition, skeletal bodies and muscles. To describe how skeletons vary. To understand the importance of a healthy balanced diet.	Music Transcribe: To recognise and write basic music notation.
History/ Geography Roman Empire Invasion on Britain: To recall invasion facts. To investigate how Roman infrastructure has influenced Britain. To recognise deities from Roman religion. To know where the countries of the UK are and name some large cities. To recognise physical features of the UK. To identify European countries.	Maple Class Spring Term 1 Topic focus: Invaders and Settlers 	P.S.H.E Relationships: To understand what a safe relationship is. To identify good and bad relationships. To know who is a safe person to talk about feelings.
Art Printing: to investigate patterns on printed fabric by known artists and express opinions. To create original pieces influenced by the work of others.		Physical Education Fitness and Health: learn about how we can look after our bodies and keep fit without equipment. Gymnastics (balancing): to improve balancing ability and successfully organise body parts to create an interesting shape.
Computing Brining images to life: To use software to manipulate digital images.		R.E. Human responsibility: asking the question: what responsibility do we have as humans?
French To identify parts of the body. To describe someone. To know the days of the week.		Maths Multiplication and division. Measurement (length and perimeter)